5. Guiding Doctrine Information

Dillon Christian School accepts and reveres the Bible as the holy, inerrant, and authoritative Word of God. We joy fully, and enthusiastically teach and promote the Biblical perspective in all academic subjects and in the general administration of the school. Attendance at Dillon Christian School is a privilege. It is a precious opportunity, which by necessity, must be upheld by a disciplined code of school regulations. The school administration may at any time request the withdrawal of any student who, in the opinion of the administration, does not submit to the school’s philosophy and/or regulations. DCS has an open admission policy without regard to race or sex, and will not permit discrimination against any student. The primary goal of DCS is to provide quality education, with a Biblical perspective, in an atmosphere of loving discipline. The person(s) whose signature appears below is responsible for payment and fees outlined in the application and the enclosed Tuition Contract.

STATEMENT OF COOPERATION

1. It is hereby understood that full tuition will be paid as stated: annually, semi-annually, or on a 12 month basis, the first payment due on June 1.

2. a. The school policy is to make no refunds on the Registration Fee (activities and books), which serves as the 2026-2027 registration fee.

b. No refund of tuition will be paid after May 30, 2026 unless the application is not accepted or the student moves, making distance impractical or a doctor's statement assuring DCS that because of sickness the student cannot attend DCS, other private schools, or a public school. If the request is granted to refund based on the above, 10% of the tuition paid will be deducted for a handling fee.

c. All requests for refunds must be made in writing to the Board of Directors. There is a 30 day waiting period from the day the request is received until the refund is issued. Refunds granted due to moving, as stated above, will be mailed to the forwarding address.

3. Tuition payments are due on the first day of the month, payable through the 10th of the month. An account will be considered delinquent on the 11th day of the month. If this account is not made current by the 11th day of the following month, the student may be removed from school until both months' payments are made. Transcripts of records, report cards, and progress reports will not be released if an account is not current.

4. The school administration has final authority for placing students in the proper grade, section, or homeroom. All new students are accepted on a nine-week trial basis.

5. The school has full discretion in the classroom discipline of students. This could include the issuing of therefore school detention, suspension, or expulsion from school. DCS does not administer corporal punishment. Specific rules and policies are stated in the Student Handbook; however, the handbook is not exhaustive. Other school policies may be implemented as required. The school also reserves the right to dismiss or discipline any student who does not respect its standards or fails to cooperate in the educational program.

6. We sincerely pledge our loyalty to the aims and ideals of the school and will bring any and all questions and criticisms directly to the teacher first and then the administration so that they may be properly considered by those in authority. Should there come a time the support of the parent can no longer be given, then we may ask the parents to withdraw their student from the school.

7. In making this application, it is my desire for my child to attend the 2026-2027 school year. I also give permission for my child to take part in all school activities, including sports and school sponsored trips away from the school's premises, and absolve the school from liability to me or my child because of any injury to my child at school or during any school activity. In case of an accident or serious illness, I request the school to contact me. If the school is unable to reach me, I hereby authorize the school to call my child's physician; the school may make whatever arrangement is needed.

8. We the parents/guardians of the student(s) have read the Statement of Cooperation and are willing to support our school with the rules, regulations, and discipline policies established by DCS for the 2026-2027 school year. We agree to support DCS and will be of the proper spirit and attitude in persons whose signature appears below is responsible for payment and fees outlined in the supplication and the enclosed tuition contract.
